Dear Angela McCown, Director of Victim Services Division

In 1998 my cousin Lacey Osina was killed, along with three of her friends Mandi McWhorter, Staci Lee, and Whitney Welch, by drunk driver Ricky Carter. Ricky Carter received only 20 years for the intoxication manslaughter of four beautiful young girls; he should have received 20 years for each girl. He is once again up for parole and I strongly believe he should be kept in prison. I respectfully request that you deny parole for Mr. Carter. Early parole would be an injustice to Lacey, Mandi, Staci, Whitney, and all their family and friends.

Respectfully,
